Design and seminar presentation and allocation of places for the winter term 2021/22

Instructions

1.) Allocation of design studio places on 04.10.21 from 10:00 a.m.

Requirements

- Enrollment at the University of Stuttgart, because you only get access to C@mpus and ILIAS after enrollment.
- Registration on C@mpus for the course "Entwurfs- und Seminarvorstellung und Vergabe"
- Access to the course "Entwurfs- und Seminarvorstellung und Vergabe" on ILIAS and to the folder "Vorstellung und Vergabe" located there.
- Only after logging in to C@mpus access is possible to the folder "Vorstellung und Vergabe". This contains information on the courses, dates and addresses for the first meeting.

Information on the courses offered in Winter Term 2021/22

- from 26.07.21 on C@mpus

Attention: Not all courses are listed here at the beginning, please check back from time to time.

- from 24.09.21 digital curriculum on ILIAS
- from 28.09.21 video presentations of the individual institutes on ILIAS
- If you do not yet have access to C@mpus and ILIAS, please contact the institutes directly to register for the allocation procedure.

Procedure

- Check registration on C@mpus and access on ILIAS.
- Read information on the course offerings and decide which design studios you wanted to apply for, including priority selection 1st-4th choice.
- On 04.10.21, 10:00 a.m. participate in the design studio allocation procedure on the platform entwurfsvergabe.architektur.uni-stuttgart.de with a maximum of 4 choices.

Instructions can be found on ILIAS.

- On 04.10.21, 18:00 publication of the result of the allocation procedure on ILIAS in the folder "Vorstellung und Vergabe".
The faculty will make strong effort to distribute the offered design studio places according to your wishes as good as possible. However, the faculty's offer cannot always fully meet the demand. Spread your priority choice as broadly as possible across different institutes so that you get a higher chance of receiving a design studio place.

2.) Allocation of seminar places from 11.10.21 via C@mpus

Information on the courses offered in Winter Term 2021/22

- from 26.07.21 on C@mpus
Please note: The placement of courses on C@mpus is a process. It is therefore advisable to follow developments regularly.
- from 24.09.21 digital courses on ILIAS
- from 28.09.21 video presentations of the individual institutes on ILIAS

Procedure

- 11.10.21, 9:00 a.m. start of registration period for seminars; if necessary, submission of application documents as specified by the institutes

see information on C@mpus and in the digital course catalogue on ILIAS

- 11.10.21, 24:00 end of the registration period for seminars
- 12. - 13.10.21, 24:00 The respective institutes select for their seminars according to the criteria mentioned above and assign them to the following two categories (on C@mpus):

- TN (participation list): Students who received a place.
- WL (waiting list): Students who have a chance to move up, if participants do not wish to attend the seminar.

Please note: C@mpus automatically allocates a "number" on the waiting list sorted by the time of application. However, the place on the list allocated by C@mpus may differ from the list allocated by the institutes. The institutes will allocate places according to the results of the additional application documents required / submitted and will draw up participation lists manually.

- by 14.10.21, 18:00 Binding confirmation by the student that the seminar place received will be accepted.
- by 14.10.21, 18:00 Students withdraw from seminars they no longer want and from waiting lists so that others can still have a chance.
- 15.10.21 Completion of the procedure. To date, allocation of free places by the institutes. Start of the lecture period.
